

Ben Gadd

202 Grizzly Crescent, Canmore, Alberta, Canada T1W 1C1
403-609-4449 • www.bengadd.com • ben@bengadd.com

Résumé to August 2016

Education

BA.Sc. (Earth Science) University of Lethbridge, 1972

Experience

2016: Retired

2004 on: President, Verdant Pass Ltd.

2000: Sessional Instructor, Environmental Science, Lakeland College
(at Yellowhead Region Educational Consortium, Hinton, Alberta)

1988–2003: Sessional Instructor, Grant MacEwan College
(at Yellowhead Region Educational Consortium, Hinton, Alberta)

1987–1994: Resource Instructor, Blue Lake Centre, Hinton, Alberta

1986–2004: co-owner/co-manager, Corax Press and Ben Gadd Interpretive Services

1985 on: federally licensed interpretive guide, Jasper National Park and other Rockies parks

1984–2004: independent cave guide, Cadomin Cave, Whitehorse Wildland Park

1981–1985: Seasonal Park Interpreter (naturalist), Jasper National Park

1977–1979: Sessional Instructor, Journalism Dept., Mount Royal College, Calgary

1976–1980: Instructor, Communication Arts Dept., Southern Alberta Institute of Technology, Calgary

1969 on: freelance writer, editorial consultant, graphic designer

Awards

2015 American Association of Petroleum Geologists, Geosciences in the Media

2014 Geological Association of Canada, E.R. Ward Neale Medal for “sustained outstanding efforts in sharing Earth science with Canadians” (national award)

Four awards, Banff Mountain Film and Book Festival (international):

2013 Summit of Excellence for “a significant contribution to mountain life in the Canadian Rockies”

2003 Best Canadian Rockies Book for The Yam, with co-authors David Dornian and Chic Scott

2001 Best Canadian Rockies Book for Raven’s End

1995 Best Guide Book for Handbook of the Canadian Rockies, second edition

2000 Luran L. Goulden Memorial Award (provincial natural-history award)

2000 Alberta Teachers' Association GEOEC Award of Merit (outdoor-education award)

1995 Andy Russell Nature Writing Award (national award)

1991 Interpretation Canada Award of Merit (national award)

Affiliations

Master Interpreter life designation, Interpretive Guides Association, 2006
Board Member, Friends of Jasper National Park, 1989–2005
Member of various conservation and natural-history organizations

Main area of expertise

Authority on the natural history of the Canadian Rockies. Geology a special interest.

Guiding and natural-history interpretation

Evening programs, guided walks, bus tours, slide shows, prop talks, school visits, literature, exhibits, interpretive-trail design and signage.

Public speaking

Talks on natural history (especially geology of the Canadian Rockies) and the value of wilderness.

Teaching

Natural-history courses and field trips with Earth-science and ecology themes. Post-secondary instruction in writing (especially technical and business writing), graphics and speech, park interpretation. Course design, preparation of teaching materials, presentation of lectures and workshops.

Writing, editing, radio and television, film

Writing and media work for the public on technical subjects (especially geology and natural history of the Canadian Rockies), recreation and conservation. Books, magazine articles, radio and television on-camera commentaries and voice-overs, speeches, essays, book reviews, fiction. Interpretive writing, public-relations writing. Technical editing, copy editing, script editing. Working with printers. Author readings and literary presentations.

Graphics and design

Literature and interpretive-sign design. Museum exhibits. Electronic layout. Maps, graphs, diagrams. Interpretive signs, museum panels, brochures, posters, advertisements, books. Photography.

Business

Interpretive consulting and guiding. Publishing. Operation of non-profit organizations. Familiar with operating in national parks.

Personal

Born 1946. Canadian citizen. Married to Cia since 1965, with two adult sons and three grandchildren.

References

Dr. Roger Macqueen, Senior Research Scientist, Geological Survey of Canada 403-292-7145 (geology)
Rick Green, Canadian Rockies Earth Science Resource Centre, 403-678-5822 (museum exhibits)
Dr. Bruce Buttler, Dean of Science, Burman University, 403-782-3381, x 4050 (teaching)
Sue Cesco, General Mgr, ret., Friends of Jasper National Park 780-852-4767 (non-profit operations)
Jackie Flanagan, Publisher, AlbertaViews magazine, Calgary 403-243-5334 (writing and journalism)
Sherrill Meropoulos, Heritage Program Officer, Jasper National Park 780-852-6154 (national parks)
Ken Mezerecky, Alberta Community Development 403-845-8595 (interpretive signs)
Nadine Fletcher, Master designation, Interpretive Guides' Association, Lake Louise 403-522-2735 (guiding)

Representative publications and projects

Since 1970 I have written, edited, designed, published or otherwise helped to produce books, periodical articles, technical reports, contract proposals, consultant's studies, government submissions, briefs, brochures, graphics, teaching materials, interpretive signs and museum exhibits. Here are some selected examples.

1975 The Century Calgary Historical Series. A major municipal/provincial publishing project that produced 40 simultaneously released titles on Calgary's history. My job: editorial and production coordination.

1977 The Geological History of Yoho Valley. A Parks Canada exhibit near Field, British Columbia. Conceptual design, writing and maquettes for three accompanying geological models.

1978 Mountains and Valleys: a Guide to the Landscape of Waterton Lakes National Park. Twenty-two-page booklet for park visitors. Writing, design and layout of this Parks Canada publication.

1978 The Columbia Mountains (Interior Ranges) of British Columbia: a Summary of Geology and Geography. Lengthy technical report for Parks Canada, for use by planners and park naturalists at Glacier and Mt. Revelstoke national parks.

1980 Lake Louise Exhibit Texts. Writing and suggested graphics for 22 Parks Canada exhibit panels in Banff National Park.

1980 Climbing at Wasootch Slabs. Thirty-six-page climber's guidebook published by Rocky Mountain Books, Calgary.

1981 The Maligne Lake Factsheet. Poster-size information sheet and map for Parks Canada.

1981 "Uphill from Jasper," article in Today magazine, Victoria Day issue. First publication in a national magazine. Light account of a father-and-son bicycle trip between Jasper and Banff. With photo.

1982 Jasper National Park. Parks Canada map tailored to supply often-requested visitor information. Design, layout.

1982 Rivers on Borrowed Time, by J. Eisenhauer and B. Kolar. Editing, design and layout of this Alberta Wilderness Association publication.

1983 Bird's-eye View of Jasper National Park. Cartoon-style map for kids, showing park highlights. Design, artwork

1983 Mount Edith Cavell Exhibit Texts. Writing for 18 interpretive signs along the Cavell Road in Jasper National Park.

1986 Handbook of the Canadian Rockies, Corax Press. A comprehensive (831-page) multidisciplinary guide to the region for naturalists and recreationists. Winner of national and international awards. Writing, design, graphics, production and marketing. A Canadian 50,000 best-seller, now in its second edition (1995, reprinted with updates in 1999, 2003, 2009).

1989 Bankhead: a Story of Coal-mining in Banff National Park. Text for this Parks Canada book, originally co-published by the Canadian Coal Association and now reprinted by the Friends of Banff National Park.

1989 Nature's Wonderlands: National Parks of the World. Technical editing of the chapter on Canadian Rockies parks in this National Geographic Society book. (After guiding the Geographer's authors and photographers, I was surprised to find myself written up and pictured in the text.) I have done other guiding and editing work for the society.

1990 The Blue Lake Centre Nature Trail. Design and guide booklet for an interpretive trail at Blue Lake Centre, an outdoor-education facility run at that time by the Alberta government. I have done similar work, including the design and placement of interpretive signs, for other self-guiding trails and roadside interpretive stops throughout the Canadian Rockies.

1992 The Rockies: Canada's Magnificent Wilderness. Text for this 128-page pictorial book on the Rockies between Waterton-Glacier International Peace Park and Mount Robson, co-published by Firefly and Beautiful America. Photographs by Paul Lally and John Winnie. A best-seller.

1993 Glaciers. Script-editing and technical consulting on this educational film by the National Geographic Society. I have worked on three other films for the society: The Rocky Mountains (1991), The Northlands (1992), and Signs of Nature (1995).

1994 "The Gathering Place," short story read on CBC Radio's Alberta Anthology program two years in a row at Christmas.

1995 Of Rocks, Mountains and Jasper: a Visitor's Guide to the Geology of Jasper National Park. Co-author with Chris Yorath (Where Terranes Collide) of this 150-page book, co-published by the Geological Survey of Canada and University of Toronto Press.

1998 Day-hiker's Guide to Jasper National Park and Summer Trails. Writing, design, maps, electronic layout and printing coordination of this brochure, published by Parks Canada and updated annually. Was also responsible for the major trail-signage project that preceded it.

1999 "Dad does the Dolomites," feature in Explore magazine, September 1999. One of several articles and items appearing in this periodical over the years. Photos.

2000 "Untamed Canadian Rockies: going wild in Jasper National Park," article in National Geographic Explorer magazine, May/June 2000. I have done other writing and editing for the magazine, and I have edited articles for National Geographic Traveler.

2001 Raven's End, my first novel, published by McClelland & Stewart, Toronto. A national best-seller in its first year. Winner of the Canadian Rockies Award, Banff Mountain Book Festival 2001. Translations thus far: German, Italian, Dutch, Danish and Japanese.

2003 The Yam. Co-author with Chic Scott and David Dornian of this book on Yamnuska, a favorite peak in the Rockies west of Calgary. Contributed natural history, human history and trail-guide sections. Published by Rocky Mountain Books. Winner, Canadian Rockies Award, Banff Mountain Book Festival 2003.

2004 "The Meatmaker," feature on twinning the Trans-Canada Highway through Banff National Park for AlbertaViews magazine, March 2005 issue. I have written a regular column for this magazine and have done other features.

2005 Series of geological interpretive signs for provincial parks in west-central Alberta.

2006 Vancouver to Kamloops and Kamloops to Calgary or Jasper Commentary Guide, a comprehensive guidebook for Rocky Mountaineer Vacations staff to use on board the company's trains when describing the natural and historical features seen along the way (in-house publication).

2007 Fraser Discovery Route Commentary Guide, another guidebook for Rocky Mountaineer Vacations staff (in-house publication).

2008 The Canadian Hiker's and Backpacker's Handbook, a how-to book for hikers and backpackers, published by Whitecap Books, Vancouver.

2008 Canadian Rockies Geology Road Tours, roadside geology of the Canadian Rockies for lay readers and geologists alike. Published by Corax Press. Should see a lot of use in field courses.

2009 Eric Mountjoy, Pioneer Geologist of Jasper National Park, exhibit at the Jasper-Yellowhead Museum. This exhibit has since travelled to other venues.

2009 "Quick Guide to the Geology of Lake O'Hara," pamphlet for visitors to Yoho National Park's most beautiful place. Published by Lake O'Hara Trails Club. Photo annotated with geology, plus accompanying summary of geological history.

2011 Canmore Rocks! Exhibit for the lay public about the geology of the Canmore-Banff area, mounted at the Canmore Museum and Geoscience Centre in Canmore, Alberta.

2011 Seven pamphlets on interesting geological localities in Jasper National Park. These were published by the Canadian Federation of Earth Sciences in conjunction with the Geological Survey of Canada as part of the national "GeoVistas" series.

2011 In National Geographic Guide to the National Parks of Canada, individual write-ups on Waterton Lakes, Elk Island, Kootenay, Yoho, Glacier and Mount Revelstoke national parks.

2012 Operation Bow-Athabasca: The Geological Survey of Canada Takes on the Rockies, historical and geological exhibit for the Canmore Museum and Geoscience Centre in Canmore, Alberta. Funded mainly by Natural Resources Canada, this bilingual exhibit has been travelling across the country. Includes a booklet (same name, published by the museum) that functions as exhibit catalogue and historical summary of Operation Bow-Athabasca.

Photographs appearing in exhibitions

1994 "Climbers on Mt. Robson," shown in The Rainbow Range exhibit at Whyte Museum Gallery, Banff.

1995 "Mountaineer in storm on Mt. Athabasca," shown in Images of Hope, a travelling Hope Foundation exhibit shown at the Lavery Gallery in Edmonton and at many other locations.

2006 A number of images shown by the Smithsonian Institution, Washington D.C., at the "Alberta at the Smithsonian" event.
